APPLICATION FOR STATEMENT OF CHARGES (CONTINUED) Page 2 of 7

On Friday May 12, 2023, I, RCI Kari Suskie, reported to Weis Markets store #149 located at 6093 Spring Ridge Pkwy Frederick, MD, to investigate 2 suspects, who were previously identified by Frederick County Sheriff's Office as Angela Marie Herman and Tony Dewayne Thomas (PD #23- 048132), for multiple reported thefts occurring at multiple different stores. I had previously printed out Ms. Herman's club card information and 90-day transaction record, which showed that they had been to stores 60, 100, 119, 129, 149 and 179. The following were my observations from CCTV review at store #149;

On April 16, 2023, at approximately 1:36pm, Mr. Thomas pulled up to the curb in a white Chevy Impala (tag MD 6ER5923) and dropped Ms. Herman off, while he parked the car. Ms. Herman entered the store carrying a large cloth duffel bag that appeared empty and placed it inside the basket of one of the electric mart-carts, then entered the store driving the cart. She proceeded to the deli area where she met up with Mr. Thomas. Ms. Herman selected a pack of mini cupcakes and placed them inside the cart. Mr. Thomas then selected a bag of fried chicken and 2 bags of chicken wings and placed them in the cart. Ms. Herman then proceeded to the Weis 2 Go wall where she selected 2 containers of salad and placed them in the cart. Mr. Thomas went back to the deli case and selected a premade salad bowl and put it in the cart. The 2 then proceeded through the produce department, where Ms. Herman selected a bunch of bananas and placed them in the cart. They then proceeded through the rear of the store to the seafood department where Ms. Herman selected a container of crab dip and placed them in the cart. At approximately 1:42pm, they proceeded down the water aisle, which is off camera. When they emerged from the aisle at approximately 1:43pm, all the previously selected items were missing from the cart, and Ms. Herman's bag was completely full. The only item left in the cart was the bananas. They proceeded to the dairy aisle where she selected orange juice and sweet tea and placed those items in the cart. They then proceeded down the frozen food aisle where Mr. Thomas selected a Banquet dinner and placed it in the cart. Ms. Herman then proceeded to the self-scan area while Mr. Thomas exited the store at approximately 1:48pm. At approximately 1:48pm, Ms. Herman approached self-scan #5 and paid for only the bananas, frozen dinner, orange juice, and sweet tea, but failed to pay for any of the concealed items inside her bag. She made a payment of $13.70, then exited the store at approximately 1:51pm and met up with Mr. Thomas at the curb. Ms. Herman can be seen retrieving the bag from inside the cart and placing it in the vehicle, before the 2 of them entered the vehicle and left the property. Total value of losses from this incident was $47.95

On April 8, 2023, at approximately 6:26pm, Mr. Thomas pulled up to the curb in a white Chevy Impala (tag MD 6ER5923) and dropped Ms. Herman off, while he parked the car. Ms. Herman entered the store carrying a large cloth duffel bag that appeared empty and placed it inside the basket of one of the electric mart-carts, then entered the store driving the cart. She proceeded to the bakery area where she met up with Mr. Thomas. Mr. Thomas selected 2 packs of cupcakes and placed them in the cart. He then proceeded to the salad bar where he made a large container of salad. They then proceeded to the meat wall where Ms. Herman selected 10 racks of lamb and placed them all inside the cart. At approximately 6:34pm, they can be seen on the produce cameras concealing all of the previously selected items inside Ms. Herman's bag. After concealment, Mr. Thomas cuts through the HBC department and exited the store at approximately 6:37pm. Ms. Herman made her way to the juice aisle where she selected a bottle of cranberry juice and placed it in the cart. She then proceeded to the self-scan area. At approximately 6:36pm, Ms. Herman approached self-scan #9 and paid for only the juice, but failed to pay for any of the concealed items inside her bag. She made a payment of $4.49, then exited the store at approximately 6:38pm and met up with Mr. Thomas at the curb. Mr. Thomas can be seen retrieving the bag from inside the cart and placing it in the vehicle, before the 2 of them entered the vehicle and left the property. Total value of losses from this incident was $275.89

On April 7, 2023, at approximately 2:27pm, Mr. Thomas pulled up to the curb in a white Chevy Impala (tag MD 6ER5923) and dropped Ms. Herman off, while he parked the car. He then proceeded to the meat wall where he selected 4 beef tenderloins and immediately concealed them in his pockets. They then proceeded through the rear of the store to the seafood department where Ms. Herman selected 6 containers of crab meat and placed them inside the cart, while Mr. Thomas selected 4 bags of crab legs and 2 bags of frozen shrimp and placed them in the cart. Ms. Herman then selected 2 packs of creamed beef and placed them in the cart, as Mr. Thomas selected 2 boxes of Little Debbie cakes and a half gallon of milk. At approximately 8:10pm, they proceeded down the pet aisle, which is off camera. When they emerged from the aisle at approximately 8:12pm, all the previously selected items were missing from the cart, and Ms. Herman's bag was completely full. The only item left in the cart were the milk, little Debbie snacks, creamed beef, and watermelon. Ms. Herman made her way to the self-scan area while Mr. Thomas stopped to talk to another customer. At approximately 8:13pm, Ms. Herman approached self-scan #4 and paid for only the milk, Little Debbie cakes, creamed beef, and watermelon, but failed to pay for any of the concealed items inside her bag. APPLICATION FOR STATEMENT OF CHARGES (CONTINUED) Page 6 of 7

On Monday May 1, 2023, I, RCI Kari Suskie, reported to Weis Markets store #60 located at 448 Prospect Blvd Fredrick, MD, to investigate 2 suspects, who were previously identified by Frederick County Sheriff's Office as Angela Marie Herman and Tony Dewayne Thomas (PD #23-048132), for multiple reported thefts occurring at multiple different stores. I had previously printed out Ms. Herman's club card information and 90-day transaction record, which showed that they had been to stores 60, 100, 119, 129, 149 and 179. The following were my observations from CCTV review at store #60;

On Saturday April 8, 2023, at approximately 7:57pm, Mr. Thomas pulled up to the curb in a white Chevy Impala (tag MD 6ER5923) and dropped Ms. Herman off, while he parked the car. Ms. Herman entered the store carrying a large cloth duffel bag that appeared empty, and placed it inside the basket of one of the electric mart-carts, then entered the store driving the cart. She proceeded to the deli counter where she ordered a pound container of chicken salad and a pound container of Watergate salad. Mr. Thomas met her at the deli counter, and while she was placing the order, he selected a bag of fried chicken and placed it in the cart. He then selected a deli side item bag (potato wedges/mozzarella sticks) and concealed it in his jacket. Mr. Thomas then went around to a front bakery table where he selected 2 6-packs of cupcakes and placed them in the cart. After Ms. Herman received the 2 salad items from the deli counter, she placed the items in the cart and proceeded to the seafood cooler where she selected a bag of frozen Gulf shrimp and placed the bag in her cart. At this time, Mr. Thomas selected a container of cut watermelon from the produce wall and concealed it in his jacket. The 2 then proceeded together to the meat wall where Mr. Thomas selected 5 racks of lamb, a family pack of chicken wings, and a family pack of chicken tenders, and placed them all inside the cart. At approximately 6:07pm, they proceeded down the bread aisle, which is off camera. When they emerged from the aisle at approximately 6:09pm, all the previously selected items were missing from the cart, and Ms. Herman's bag was completely full. The only item left in the cart was a loaf of bread. Ms. Herman made her way to the self-scan area while Mr. Thomas proceeded down the dairy aisle. While in dairy, Mr. Thomas selected 2 bottles of juice and immediately concealed them in his jacket pocket as he left the aisle. He proceeded past all registers before cutting through register #12, and exited the store. He never made any attempt to pay for the items concealed in his jacket. At approximately 6:10pm, Ms. Herman approached self-scan #2 and paid for only the loaf of bread, but failed to pay for any of the concealed items inside her bag. She made a payment of $2.99, then exited the store at approximately 6:11pm and met up with Mr. Thomas. Mr. Thomas can be seen retrieving the bag from inside the cart and placing it in the vehicle, before the 2 of them entered the vehicle and left the property.

On Monday June 5, 2023, I, RCI Kari Suskie, reported to Weis Markets store #179 located at 2 Thurmont Blvd, Thurmont, MD, to investigate 2 suspects, who were previously identified by Frederick County Sheriff's Office as Angela Marie Herman and Tony Dewayne Thomas (PD #23-048132), for multiple reported thefts occurring at multiple different stores. I had previously printed out Ms. Herman's club card information and 90-day transaction record, which showed that they had been to stores 60, 100, 119, 129, 149, and 179. The following were my observations from CCTV review at store #179;

On March 11, 2023, at approximately 6:43pm, Mr. Thomas pulled up to the curb in a white Chevy Impala (tag MD 6ER5923) and dropped Ms. Herman off, while he parked the car. Ms. Herman entered the store carrying a large cloth duffel bag that appeared empty and placed it inside the basket of one of the electric mart-carts, then proceeded through the store driving the cart. She proceeded to the bakery area where she met up with Mr. Thomas. Mr. Thomas selected a tub of cookies from a bakery table and placed them inside the cart. They then proceeded to the deli department where Ms. Herman ordered 2lbs of chicken salad and 1lb of Watergate salad. At the same time, Mr. Thomas had selected a bag of fried chicken and placed it in the basket. He then proceeded to the Weis 2 Go wall where he selected a tub of deli salad (macaroni, coleslaw, potato) and concealed it in his left coat pocket. He then walked past the deli self-scan register where he removed a plastic bag from the rack and concealed it in his pocket. He then selected a 20oz soda from the deli cooler and concealed it in his pants pocket. Once Ms. Herman retrieved the salads from the counter, she placed them in the cart and proceeded to the seafood department with Mr. Thomas. Mr. Thomas selected 2 bags of frozen snapper and placed them in the cart. Ms. Herman selected 2 tubs of crab meat and a premade seafood salad and placed them in the cart. Mr. Thomas then selected 2 bags of crab legs and placed them in the cart. At this point Ms. Herman proceeded down the paper aisle (which is off camera) while Mr. Thomas approached the meat wall where he selected 2 packs of pork chops and 5 blister packs of NY strip steaks. He then went down the paper aisle with Ms. Herman. At approximately 6:58pm, they exited the paper aisle in the front of the store and all previously selected items were missing from the cart except for the cookies and Watergate salad. Ms. Herman's duffel bag was completely full, and Mr. Thomas was carrying the plastic bag he retrieved earlier, now filled with merchandise. They proceeded to the front of the store and entered the line at checkout #14. Mr. Thomas continued through the line with his bag of merchandise, failing to stop and pay for the concealed items, and exited the store at approximately 6:59pm. Ms. Herman only paid for the cookies and Watergate salad but failed to pay for any of the concealed items inside her bag. Once she completed her transaction, she exited the store at approximately 7:00pm and met up with Mr. Thomas at the curb.
